

FIRST VOICES FESTIVAL

— Evening Performances —

Shelley Morningsong & Fabian Fontenelle

November 19, 2022 • 7 pm • 7 Stages Mainstage

Following a full day of complimentary events, 7 Stages hosts an evening of performances on the Mainstage featuring Shelley Morningsong and Fabian Fontenelle.

The goal of First Voices Festival is to provide Indigenous artists a platform to share their stories, art, and culture while promoting diversity, equity, and inclusivity to help people better understand how choices today can impact generations to come.

Shelley Morningsong & Fabian Fontenelle

2019 Native American Music Awards "Artist of the Year" Singer, Songwriter, Native American flute player, Grammy Member, ASCAP Member, Photographer and Painter, Shelley Morningsong (Northern Cheyenne & Scandinavian) is a Multiple Music Award Winner! With seven prestigious Native American Music Awards to her credit Shelley Morningsong sings, writes and performs soulful and powerful Native American Contemporary music. Shelley is joined by her husband, Fabian Fontenelle (Zuni/Omaha), who presents Northern Traditional dancing, Storytelling and Traditional Plains & Southwestern style Drumming at it's finest to accompany her presentation. Fabian brings great honour to his Zuni and Omaha families through what he shares on stage and in his own personal life.
